

PALMETTO BLUFF HOME

Domestic: 4 people | 6 nights

Situated in the picturesque low country of South Carolina along the beautiful May River, Palmetto Bluff Resort is the embodiment of grace, comfort, and romance. Four people will spend five days and six nights in one of Palmetto Bluff's lovely Village Homes. Located at 6 Parkman Street, this home has three bedrooms. Your retreat includes one round of golf for four people and four 60-minute spa treatments. In addition, you will enjoy a cruise down the river on the beautiful Grace, a 1913 wooden motor yacht. The 20,000-acre tract known as Palmetto Bluff extends from the headwaters of the May River near the town of Bluffton, skirts Bull and Dafuskie islands via the Cooper River to its east, and gives way finally to the ancient freshwater rice fields of the New River along its western edge. For more than a century, "The Bluff" has been known to a privileged few as one of the wildest and most beautiful places in the Carolina low country—itsself an area recognized as one of the most picturesque in the world.

Details: Four people; five days, six nights. Accommodations in three-bedroom home with two king beds and two full beds. One round of golf for four; four 60-minute spa treatments; cruise for four on the Grace. Valid through June 30, 2009. www.palmetto-bluff.com