Bailey scores career-high 20 at Union

Junior Allysia Bailey scored a career-high 20 points in Monday's loss at top-ranked Union University, setting career-bests for field goals made (8) and attempts (19) and posting the first 20-point game of her career. Bailey has scored in double figures in nine of the team's 12 TranSouth Conference games, averaging 10.8 points per game in league play. Bailey's 3-pointer three minutes into Monday's contest also ended an 0-for-23 streak from behind the arc for the Bulldogs. The Knoxville, Tenn., native made a pair of trifectas in the contest, just her 12th and 13th 3-pointers of the season.

Brown misses second straight game

Junior Keshia Brown, Cumberland's leading scorer at 12.3 points per game, turned her left ankle badly last Thursday at Blue Mountain and did not play in Saturday's rivalry game against Trevecca Nazarene nor against top-ranked Union University on Monday. Brown tied her career-high with 20 points at Blue Mountain, just the second 20-point game of her career after she netted 20 at Bethel Univ. on January 18. The Clarksville, Tenn., native has scored in double figures in 11 of the last 15 games dating to December 2, averaging 13.6 points per contest during the stretch. In TranSouth action, the Clarksville HS product is posting 14.6 points per outing, eighth best in the league in conference play. She is shooting 43 percent from the field and 73 percent at the foul line in TranSouth action. Brown's only issue this season has been turnovers, a category in which she leads the Bulldogs with 64 overall, a little more than three per game.

This season's meeting

Keshia Brown scored a career-high 20 points and Cumberland took the lead after erasing a nine-point second-half deficit, but the Bulldogs were unable to hang on, falling 70-65 at 19th-ranked Bethel on January 18. Cumberland lost for the third time in four games, all against ranked opponents, after dominating play in the lane where the Bulldogs netted 48 of their points. Brown scored 18 of her 20 points in the second half, leading four double-figure scorers for CU. Cumberland scored nine of the last 11 points of the first half and trailed just 31-30 at the break. The Bulldogs continued the run after intermission, taking a four-point lead early in the second period, but Bethel answered with a 19-6 spurt for a 52-43 advantage midway through the half. CU fought back, mostly behind Brown, as the Bulldogs applied pressure and converted turnovers into easy buckets. An old fashioned three-point play from the junior gave Cumberland a 60-58 lead with 2:28 remaining. But Teena Carter answered right back for the Wildcats with a basket for the fifth tie of the half. Bethel scored 12 of the final 17 points of the game, including six points from Kashundria Berry. Nina Djokovic scored a game-high 26 points and added 13 rebounds to lead the Wildcats, while Carter added 13 and Tristian Johnson netted 10. Berry ended the game with just eight points, but four big free throws in the final minute. Simone Ryan scored 11 points for the Bulldogs, while Allysia Bailey collected 10 points and Stephanie Martin posted 10 points and a team-high nine rebounds. Ryan and Brit-tany Cash also combined for 14 points off the bench for CU.

Bethel has won five straight in series

Cumberland has lost five straight in the series with Bethel Univ., both regular season meetings the last two seasons as well as a five-point victory earlier this year in McKenzie. The Wildcats won the four contests the last two seasons by an average of 17.5 points per outing, but CU lost by just five to then 19th-ranked Bethel on January 18. The Bulldogs won both contests in 2007 (86-76 and 91-72). The teams were both members of the TCAC and the Mid-South Conference at the same time but did not meet during the 2004-06 seasons at all.

Bulldogs get off the schlide

Cumberland's Allysia Bailey hit a 3-pointer with 17:08 remaining in the first half Monday at Union University, ending an 0-for-23 skid for the Bulldogs from behind the arc. CU went a full three games without making a 3-pointer, going 0-for-5 at Freed-Hardeman, 0-for-10 at Blue Mountain and 0-for-8 versus Trevecca. The Bulldogs started the season shooting 37 percent from 3-point range in nonconference games, but the squad has made just 22 percent (25-of-114) during TranSouth play, and that's with Monday's 6-for-12 effort. The Bulldogs are last in the TranSouth in 3-point shooting in conference games and rank 100th nationally among 104 teams in Division I in 3-point shooting in conference games.

Defense still leads TranSouth

After ranking in the Top 5 nationally in scoring defense for most of the season, Cumberland dropped to 12th in the country after allowing 89 points against both Freed-Hardeman and Blue Mountain. The Bulldog defense allowed just 56 points to Trevecca on Saturday and 77 to top-ranked Union on Monday, the fourth-ranked scoring offense in the nation. Cumberland is currently ranked 14th nationally and leads the TranSouth Conference in scoring defense heading into Thursday's contest against Bethel Univ., allowing 57.86 points per game. The Bulldogs have allowed 60 points or less in 14 of the team's 22 contests this season and 70 or less in 19 outings. Compare that with last year's club that allowed 70 points or more 16 times and gave up 100 on three separate occasions. CU ranks second in the TranSouth in field goal percentage defense at .376, tied for second in 3-point field goal percentage defense at .275, third in blocks per game with 3.50 and fifth in steals with 9.18.

Close losses haunt Bulldogs

Cumberland dropped a 56-49 decision to 12th-ranked Trevecca Nazarene on Saturday. The seven-point loss was a chapter in a recurring theme for the Bulldogs this season, especially in TranSouth action. Cumberland has lost seven times this season by seven points or less, including five games from December 30-January 25. The Bulldogs dropped eight of 10 outings from December 30-January 25, with the average margin of defeat just 6.6 points (a grand total of 53 points). Five of the eight losses came against ranked foes, including the Univ. of the Cumberlands (67-65), Freed-Hardeman (59-53), Trevecca Nazarene (61-50), Bethel Univ. (70-65), and Union Univ. (69-63). CU's average margin of defeat in TranSouth action is 15.0 points, but seven of the 10 losses have come by 11 points or less, including four by seven points or less.

Bulldogs ink Seymour's Cowan

Cumberland has signed Seymour, Tenn., native Casie Cowan to scholarship papers for the 2010-11 academic year. Cowan has played four seasons for coach Andy Rines at Seymour High School, earning All-District 3-AA honors as a sophomore and junior and All-Region 2-AA accolades last season. She was named to the Knoxville News-Sentinel Prep XTra Preseason Second Team for this season after garnering Honorable Mention honors at the end of the 2008-09 campaign. Seymour was ranked seventh in east Tennessee in the preseason as well. Cowan averaged 11 points and three assists per game as a junior. The Lady Eagles won Region 2-AA last season and made the state sectionals. She is the daughter of Christy West and Rod Cowan and is also a 2008 Junior Rodeo Champion in Breakaway Roping.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Bulldogs on the Radio

■ All Bulldog basketball games may be heard on WANT FM 98.9 originating in Lebanon. Marv Dobson is in his second season as the play-by-play man for Bulldog basketball and is joined by Jon Boyce, in his first season as color commentator.

Interview Protocol

■ After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Lonnie Thompson will be available for members of the media. The Bulldog locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, the interview area is located just off the southwest corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Thompson will be brought to an area designated by the home team. Player requests should be directed to Sports Information Director Jo Jo Freeman or Graduate Assistant Chris Brenneman.

Credentials

■ Arrangement for media credentials for the 2009-10 basketball season should be directed to the Sports Information Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Jo Jo Freeman. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Cumberland basketball on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space available basis.

Cumberland.edu/athletics

■ Cumberland basketball statistics and notes are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at cumberland.edu/athletics. Media are invited to use the official web site for Cumberland athletics for information regarding all Bulldog athletic teams.

Cumberland picked fifth in preseason

The Cumberland women's basketball program was picked seventh in a vote of league coaches released during the TranSouth Conference Media Day in Jackson, Tenn. Defending national champion Union University was the unanimous choice as the top team in the conference. Union received all seven first-place votes and 63 points in the Preseason Coaches Poll, while Freed-Hardeman, Trevecca Nazarene and Bethel Univ. were unanimous choices as the Nos. 2, 3 and 4 teams in the league, respectively. Lyon College (33), Martin Methodist (26), Cumberland (25), Blue Mountain (12) and Mid-Continent (9) rounded out the preseason poll. At least one TranSouth Conference team has reached the NAIA championship game in each of the last five years, with a conference member winning the national title in four of the five seasons. Cumberland reached the title game in 2007 before falling to Lambuth Univ.

Head Coach Jeremy Lewis

Jeremy Lewis enters his first season as head coach of the women's basketball team at Cumberland University and his fifth as a full-time coach at his alma mater.

It is also Lewis' ninth as a member of the Bulldog family both as a player and coach.

Lewis took over the women's program in May 2009 after serving the last four seasons as a full-time assistant for coach Lonnie Thompson and the CU men's program. His roles included scouting, recruiting, film exchange and budgeting, as well as monitoring the student-athletes' progress both on and off the court. His main responsibilities included developing the team's wing and guard positions, composing scouting reports for game preparation and recruiting incoming student-athletes.

Lewis spent three seasons as the starting point guard at Cumberland for the 2001-02 through 2003-04 seasons before serving one season as a graduate assistant for the Bulldog women's basketball staff in 2004-05. As a player he was named Honorable Mention All-Conference as a junior and senior and garnered All-America and Academic

All-Conference accolades as senior.

He graduated from CU in May of 2004 with a bachelor's in Sports Administration and is currently working on his master's in Education Administration.

Lewis prepped at Beech High School in Hendersonville, Tenn., and played one season at Aquinas Community College in Nashville under the tutelage of Hall of Fame coach Charlie Anderson before transferring to Cumberland.

Lewis and his wife, Martha, reside in Hendersonville with their one-year-old daughter, Emery, and their dog, Jazzy.
