Frommer's Review

With a toasty fire crackling in the pizza ovens and the dim roar of a lively cocktail crowd, this new pizzeria in the trendy 12th Avenue South district has quickly built a loyal following. An outdoor patio give patrons a great place to hang while throwing back a few beers or bottles of vino. Skip the soggy, tomato-laden bruschetta but try the meaty pasta dishes and thin-crust pizzas, sold by the slice or whole pie.
