

Binkley Baptist Church presents
The 2014 Seymour Symposium*

Friday-Sunday
October 24-26

This year's symposium convenes some of the greatest prophetic voices in North Carolina to address the social justice issues of our time.

symposium is free,
Friday dinner is $10 pre-registration only*

Limited Seating
Register by 10/20

1712 Willow Drive
Chapel Hill NC 27514
919.942.4964
binkleychurch.org
office@binkleychurch.org

Righting Wrongs: Justice, the Church, and Public Discourse

Keynote Speakers

Rev. Dr. William J. Barber, II
Protestant minister and President of the NC NAACP and political leader who has been featured on CNN, MSNBC, and in the New York Times. He was named the top faith leader to watch in 2014. Rev. Barber has spearheaded the Forward Together movement, which created Moral Mondays.

Baldemar Velasquez

Life-long organizer and founder of FLOC (Farm Laborer's Organizing Committee), Rev. Velasquez obtained the first union contract for farm workers in NC. He has been recognized with a MacArthur Fellowship ("Genius Grant") and Mexico's Aguila Azteca Award—the highest award Mexico can give a non-citizen. Rev. Velasquez is currently working on a campaign organizing tobacco farm workers in NC, KY, and TN.

Event Schedule

Friday, October 24, 2014

4-4:30 pm	Registration & Coffee
4:30-6 pm	The Battle to End Poverty in NC Billy Barnes, Gene Nichol
6-6:45 pm	Dinner ($10) & Table Discussion
7-8:30 pm	The Biblical Call to Justice Rev. Dr. William Barber, II
8:30-9 pm	Refreshments

Saturday, October 25, 2014

8-8:30 am	Continental Breakfast
8:30-10 am	The Role of the Church in Righting Wrongs Rev. Dr. William Barber, II
10-10:20 am	Coffee Break
10:20 am-12 pm	Public Policy and Justice NC Rep. Verla Insko NC Senator Howard Lee US Rep. David Price Moderator: Charles Coble

Sunday, October 26, 2014

9:30 am	Working in the Front Lines Director of EmPOWERment Delores Bailey Chapel Hill Councilwoman Maria Palmer FLOC President Baldemar Velasquez
11 am	Worship with Baldemar Velasquez