Find the Fun at the Fair!
2007 Fair Guide has the scoop

FRANKLIN -- Want a great summer read? Get the skinny on nine days of fun at the Williamson County Fair presented by Tractor Supply Company in the brand-new 2007 Fair Fun Guide.

The full-color, 32-page special publication, just out, is full of photos, feature stories, maps, and a day-by-day run-down of entertainment and special events during the Fair, August 3-11 at the Williamson County Ag Expo Park in Franklin.

"The Fair fun Guide is a great way to become familiar with all the Fair has to offer families," said Dave Crouch, Fair chairman. "Inside, you'll find tips on special promotions, in-depth entertainment articles and the latest word on everything from racing pigs to pageants to agriculture competitions. It should be at the top of everyone's summer reading list."

Copies of the Fair Fun Guide were distributed through local newspapers throughout the county this week. They are also available at the County Mayor's office in the County Administrative Building, 1320 West Main St. in Franklin, the Chamber of Commerce Offices in City Hall Mall in Franklin and the offices of the Heritage Foundation at Five Points in Franklin.
