

Experienced Marketing/Public Relations Account Executive

Lam-Andrews, an established marketing/public relations/interactive firm seeks an outstanding person with 6+ years experience in agency account management.

Excellent organizational and communication skills, including writing, are a must. Healthcare marketing experience is a big plus. Candidate will be assisting in the execution and project management for multiple clients. You will be working with an exceptional team.

Lam-Andrews is the high quality player in Nashville and an extremely service oriented firm, serving prestigious and aggressive industry leading companies. A forward work environment, talented team, and the area's finest clients for the exceptional individual.

This is a full time position. It does not require travel.

Please send samples of your writing, resume and salary history to dandrews@lam-andrews.com

Salary- Commensurate with experience