

ALABAMA QUAIL HUNT

Domestic: 2 people | 1 night, 2 days hunting

Two people will travel to Pat Dye's Crooked Oaks hunting reserve in Alabama for superb quail hunting. Your visit begins with lunch and an afternoon hunt, followed by dinner. The second day you will enjoy a delicious breakfast before your morning hunt. Lunch will be served before your departure. Coach Dye will visit with the winning bidders. There is a 24-bird limit per hunter, though extra birds may be ordered prior to the hunt at an additional fee.

Details: Two people; one night. Two half days hunting. Meals and lodging included at Crooked Oaks located in Notasulga, Alabama. Ammunition, hunting permit, and gratuities not included. 24-bird limit; additional birds ordered prior to hunt for $5 per bird. All birds over limit on the day of the hunt are $9 per bird. Valid through November 2008. Monday-Thursday only.