

PRSA Ad 11.11.11

Marketing/PR Agency Account Coordinator

Lam-Andrews, an established public relations and marketing firm in Nashville is seeking an outstanding person to assist in client service and project management. Two or more years' experience in a marketing communications environment is preferred.

Candidate will assist in the execution and project management for multiple clients and work with exceptional creative team. Must demonstrate extreme professionalism in working with clients and internal colleagues. Excellent organizational and written and verbal communication skills are a must.

We are a specialized marketing, public relations, web and advanced creative firm. We are the high-quality player in Nashville and an extremely service-oriented firm, serving prestigious and aggressive companies.

Only local candidates will be considered. This is a full-time job.

Please send writing samples, resume and salary history to dandrews@lam-andrews.com

Salary commensurate with experience.