TO: Tennessee Independent Colleges and Universities Association
FROM: Dr. Richard G. Rhoda
SUBJECT: Off-Campus Location Approval
DATE: April 10, 2008

The Tennessee Higher Education Commission serves as the coordinating body for the state's public system of higher education and maintains a working relationship with the independent institutions operating within the state. The Commission has no regulatory authority over regionally accredited non-profit independent institutions, nor does it have responsibility to approve off-campus locations for such institutions.
