

KOHLER GOLF & CHICAGO

Domestic: 4 people | 4 nights

No golfer will want to pass up this extraordinary opportunity to play two of the best courses in the country. Four people will fly private plane one way to Milwaukee to begin this golf odyssey. Your first round of play is at The Riverbend Club in Kohler, Wisconsin, the estate of plumbing industrialist and the late Governor William J. Kohler, Sr. Here you will play two rounds on The Riverbend Club's Whistling Straits course, the site of the 2004 PGA Championship and the 2007 U.S. Open. Whistling Straits is scheduled to host the 2010 PGA Championship and the 2020 Ryder Cup. Two spa treatments at the American Club Sheboygan River are also included. Next take a scenic two-hour drive to Chicago where you will spend two nights at the Sutton Place Hotel located just steps away from the world-renowned Magnificent Mile, the exclusive boutiques of Oak Street, and the nightlife of Rush Street. Your outing continues with one round of golf for four at Olympia Fields Golf Club, site of the 2003 U.S. Open Golf Championship. Finally, your trip includes an unparalleled gourmet experience when you dine at Tru Restaurant where you will be dazzled by the food, wine and priceless works of art, including Andy Warhol's Marilyn.
