runs scored and seven stolen bases. He ranks ninth in the TranSouth in hits (40), 10th in runs scored, 11th in batting average and total bases (64) and 14th in slugging percentage (.610).

Greener finds stroke

Junior Matt Greener has also been red hot at the plate and had his 10-game hitting streak snapped in last Saturday's second game against Union University. Greener is batting .390 (16-for-41) over his last 12 games with two doubles, three home runs, 12 RBIs and 14 runs scored. He collected three hits in the opener at Lyon College and recorded a pair of hits three other times during the 10-game hitting streak. Greener ranks fourth on the club with a .368 overall average and is second with 38 hits. He is also tied for third on the club with eight doubles. The Jupiter, Fla., native has played in the most games of anyone on the squad, 33, starting 32 of those contests. Greener ranks 15th in the TranSouth in batting average and hits.

Pitching big part of success

For a staff that had to replace nearly 90 percent of its innings, the current group of arms, especially the three guys throwing on the weekend for the Bulldogs, have been a major part of the team's current 12-game winning streak and 10-2 mark in TranSouth Conference play. Juniors Shawn Schaefer and Robert Post and senior Richard Timbrook have all pitched very well, posting a 9-1 combined mark with a 1.78 ERA in TSAC action. Schaefer has been the workhorse, tossing a pair of nine-inning affairs and 30.0 total innings in four TSAC starts with a 3.00 ERA and 23 strikeouts. The lefthander has won his last four decisions. Post tossed a five-inning no-hitter at Lyon College and has allowed just four earned runs in four league starts, striking out 31 in 23.1 innings of work. The righthander has allowed only seven hits and opponents are batting just .092. Post ranks fourth nationally in opponent batting average for all games (.163), hits allowed per nine innings (4.97), 31st in ERA (2.16) and 50th in earned runs allowed (1.43). Timbrook has won six consecutive decisions and has given up just one earned run in 22.2 innings of work in conference play. Overall Timbrook ranks 34th in the country in ERA (2.20), 35th in wins (6) and 44th in earned runs allowed (1.38).

last May and has been on the slow road to recovery both in rehab and with his work on the mound this season. Coach Woody Hunt has brought along the righthander very slowly, one inning at a time. Spivey did not allow a run in his first three outings this season but gave up two runs at Embry-Riddle on March 5. Since then the Ocala, Fla., native has given up just one unearned run in four contests, including a five-inning relief effort in a 10-inning victory at Lyon College on March 28. In that game Spivey allowed just two hits and the one run with three strikeouts, keeping the Scots at bay until Max Kautz's two-run homer in the 10th won it for CU. Spivey owns a 0.82 ERA in 11.0 innings of work this season with 10 strikeouts overall and a 1-0 record.

14 RBIs ... Max Kautz earned his way into the starting lineup by hitting .500 (14-for-28) over his last eight games played with three doubles, 12 runs scored and nine RBIs. Kautz had multiple hits in five consecutive outings (March 21-29) and multiple runs in four of the eight games.

Kautz, Post selected TSAC POW

Juniors Max Kautz and Robert Post were selected the TranSouth Conference Player and Pitcher of the Week, respectively, March 29 as named by the conference office. Kautz hit .563 during CU's four victories with nine runs scored, three doubles, one home run and five RBIs. He also drew two walks while posting a .938 slugging percentage. The Palo Alto, Calif., native posted at least two hits in all four games for the week. Kautz hit a game-winning two-run homer in the 10-inning, 11-10 victory over Lyon College in the first game of a doubleheader. Post posted a five-inning no-hitter in his only appearance of the week. The Mt. Juliet, Tenn., native struck out eight and walked three against Lyon in the no-hitter and allowed just an unearned run on a throwing error in the contest.

Sprague voted TSAC Pitcher of the Week

Junior Adam Sprague was voted the TranSouth Conference Pitcher of the Week on February 23 after posting his second victory of the season, versus Iowa Wesleyan. The lefthander from Winter Park, Fla., tossed six innings, allowing just two earned runs, striking out six and walking two against the Tigers.

CU ranked 11th in preseason

The Cumberland baseball team ranked 11th in the 2009 NAIA Baseball Coaches' Preseason Top 25 Poll announced in November. The Bulldogs posted a 46-21 record last season and finished the year one win shy of their fifth straight NAIA World Series appearance. The Bulldogs and 28th-year head coach Woody Hunt returned four starters from last year's club, including catcher Mike Wheeler, who hit 15 home runs and had 64 RBIs, as well as outfielder/DH Zack Diekmann, who belted eight home runs with 26 RBIs. CU had to replace almost its entire pitching staff that posted a team earned-run-average of 3.74 last season and allowed opponents to bat just .258. Gone from roster are eight pitchers who accounted for 75 percent of last season's innings.

Hunt elected to Sports Hall of Fame

Cumberland baseball coach Woody Hunt was one of 11 greats inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame on February 20 at the Renaissance Hotel in Nashville, Tenn. Others who were inducted include Sam Bartholomew, Jr., Philip Hutcheson, Joe Gilliam, Jr. (posthumous), Tommy Owen (posthumous), Andy Nelson, Sarah Ingram, Elliot Perry, Tim Priest, Stan Huntsman and Chip Kell. Hunt has served on the baseball staff at Cumberland for 30 years, three as an assistant in 1978, '79 and '81 and then as the head coach since 1982. CU was a two-year school his first two seasons and became a four-year institution beginning with the 1984 baseball season. The Belmont University graduate has compiled 1,193 victories in 27 seasons as head coach at CU and an 1,132-463-3 mark as head coach since 1984. He is one of only six coaches to register more than 1,000 career victories in NAIA. It marked the fifth Hall of Fame in which Hunt was inducted. He had previously been inducted into the NAIA, Cumberland, Boyle County [KY] and Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association Halls of Fame.

CU picked to win TranSouth

Cumberland's baseball team was picked to win the TranSouth Conference in a preseason poll of the league coaches announced in January by the conference office. Cumberland received six of the eight first-place votes in a poll of the league coaches and tallied 62 total points. Trevecca received the other two first-place votes and had 58 total points for second place. Union University, Martin Methodist and Lyon College ranked third, fourth and fifth, respectively, with Freed-Hardeman, Bethel College and Mid-Continent rounding out the poll. In 2008, Trevecca won the regular season title, with Cumberland taking the TranSouth Tournament championship. The Bulldogs won their fifth straight Region XI Tournament but fell one game shy of the NAIA World Series, losing in a best-of-three series to Union College (KY).
