

McNeely Pigott & Fox Internship Program

McNeely Pigott & Fox is an award-winning, full-service public relations firm located in Nashville, Tenn., that specializes in public relations, social media, research, grassroots projects, media relations, marketing and event planning. The 65-person company is the largest public relations firm in the state and one of the largest independent public relations firms in the Southeast.

Each semester, MP&F hosts college students in its internship program. College juniors and seniors and graduate students are encouraged to apply for the positions, which are available during the fall, spring and summer semesters.

The program is structured to be an introduction to life in a public relations agency. Interns gain experience in:

- Writing
- Media pitching
- Building media lists
- Research
- Event planning
- Social media
- Working one-on-one with account staff
- Being part of client account teams

Though the internship is unpaid, MP&F reimburses students for credit hours earned (up to six) based on in-state tuition for the University of Tennessee. Students applying for a summer internship must be able to work full time (or very close to it) from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Interested candidates may contact Jennifer Poston at jposton@mpf.com or Erin Mercer at emercer@mpf.com. Resume submission deadline for the fall semester is July 15. For more information, visit www.mpf.com.