Looking for that little gem of a getaway? Two of you will find it at Twin Farms country estate, a place where premier service marries convivial elegance. Nestled on 300 bucolic acres in central Vermont, Twin Farms is an idyllic country estate marked by stunning wildflowers, rolling hills, and wandering trails. A pair of lakes graces the property where old roads lead nowhere. A library includes everything from Grisham to Trollope. This award-winning resort has received Mobil Travel Guide's Five-Star Award for 13 years in a row. In addition, it was voted Zagat's Top Small 100 Hotels in the country for 2007. Your two-night, three-day stay includes all meals, wine, liquor, and soft beverages. Your accommodations will be in one of the resort's cottages, each of which has at least one fireplace, king bed, and screened porch. Activities include hiking, horseback riding, fly fishing, cross-country skiing, and much more. You may also choose to partake of treatments in the Out of the Woods spa at an additional fee.

Details: Two people, two nights, three days. All meals, wine, liquor and soft beverages included. Spa services available for a fee. Taxes, gratuities and service charges not included. Valid Sunday through Thursday through June 14, 2009. Not available Friday or Saturdays. Room nights are based on availability. www.twinfarms.com
