Fridrich & Clark to Merge Offices

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 4, 2009 – Effective June 1, the Music Row and Green Hills offices of Fridrich & Clark Realty will merge, Steve Fridrich, CEO, announced today.

“In these economic times, the merger makes sense because the resulting efficiencies will help maximize the firm’s resources,” said Fridrich. “The consolidation of our leadership, expertise and success will allow us to serve our clients even better as they will benefit from industry knowledge, experience, and contacts that are unmatched in this area.”

With the merger, the Green Hills office will welcome Music Row agents, including eight 2008 Greater Nashville Association of Realtors (GNAR) Award of Excellence recipients. Those winners include the 2008 GNAR Rookie of the Year and four of the 10 GNAR 2008 First-Time Award Winners. “Combined with the 12 GNAR Award Winners of 2008 already there, the Green Hills office will be home to more award winners and top ranking Realtors® than any other real estate office in Middle Tennessee,” said Fridrich.

With the merger, Richard Courtney, current Managing Broker for the Music Row office, will add his expertise to Green Hills with training and support in a managing role. Whit Clark, 2008 Realtor of the Year, will continue in his role as Managing Broker in Green Hills. Courtney is the 2007 Realtor of the Year for the Tennessee Association of Realtors, 2004 Realtor of the Year for GNAR, 2008 GNAR Community Service Award Winner, Past President of GNAR, and noted author and columnist.

Founded in 1966, Fridrich & Clark Realty is a full-service residential real estate firm with more than 160 full-time professional agents and offices in Davidson and Williamson counties.
