Series history in favor of Trojans

Cumberland heads into Saturday's contest having lost 10 consecutive games against rival Trevecca and 17 of the last 18 contests. TNU leads the all-time series, 17-10, and Trevecca head coach Gary Van Atta is a perfect 8-0 against the Bulldogs. TNU won both meetings last season, 79-56 in Nashville and 64-47 in Lebanon.

Last year's results

As stated previously, Trevecca won both meetings last season, 79-56 in Nashville and 64-47 in Lebanon. In Nashville Abby Lawson scored 20 points and Jennifer Bognar added 18, as the Trojans built a 42-28 halftime advantage en route to the victory. Chaquaila Gaten netted 19 points to lead the Bulldogs, while Brittany Cash hit four 3-pointers and totaled 17 points and Angie Wells posted a dozen points. In Lebanon CU shot just 17 percent (5-for-30) in the first half and never recovered. K.C. Van Atta led four TNU players in double figures with 15 points, all on 3-pointers, while Tamara Gonzalez scored 11 points for the Bulldogs and was the only player in double digits.

Wells ups her scoring

Senior point guard Angie Wells has started the last six games for the Bulldogs and has finally found the scoring touch, driving to the basket more. She netted a season-high eight points in a 59-53 loss to No. 6 Freed-Hardeman and followed that with a season-best 13 points in Thursday's victory over Blue Mountain. She is 8-for-16 from the field over the last two games after making just 13 field goals in the first 10 games of the season. Since moving into the starting lineup, the Cleveland, Tenn., native has also picked up her rebounding efforts, grabbing 17 boards over the last five games, 3.4 per game, a full carom above her career average.

Shooting streak crashes for Gonzalez

Sophomore Tamara Gonzalez has been an excellent marksman this season for the Bulldogs, hitting 42 percent from 3-point range. The Asuncion, Paraguay, native averaged 13.5 points, hit 48 percent from the field (51-for-107) and 50 percent from 3-point range (23-of-46) during a 10-game stretch from November 14-January 9, including seven double-figure scoring efforts. She posted a then career-high 24 points with five 3-pointers against Fisk University on December 12 and came back in the next game with five more trifectas and 28 points versus Tennessee Wesleyan. She also scored 13 points against 13th-ranked Univ. of the Cumberlands and 10 versus No. 6 Freed-Hardeman. Gonzalez had a stretch of five contests from Dec. 12-Jan. 9 where she made 33-of-67 field goals (.493), averaging 17.8 points per outing. But Gonzalez's hot hand came to a crashing halt Thursday against Blue Mountain when she went 0-for-10 from the field and 0-of-7 from 3-point range and scored just two points. She is still the team's leading scorer at 11.8 points per game.

Bailey up-and-down

Junior point guard Allysia Bailey's season has been marked by good play and bad play and little in-between, causing the Walters State CC transfer to come off the bench over the last five games. Bailey has six double-figure scoring games this season, but she has scored in double digits in consecutive outings just once all year. She also has more turnovers than assists (19-to-17) but has 18 steals and is shooting 75 percent at the foul line. She scored 14 points against 13th-ranked Univ. of the Cumberlands and followed that with 11 points in the conference opener at Lyon College, but then had just six versus No. 6 Freed-Hardeman. The Knoxville, Tenn., native has shared time at the point with Angie Wells, averaging 22.8 minutes per game.

Brown finds scoring touch

Junior Keshia Brown started the season slow, but the Clarksville, Tenn., native has really picked up her scoring over the last seven games, averaging 12.9 points per outing during the stretch with six double figure outings. She posted 17 points against 13th-ranked Univ. of the Cumberlands and had 15 versus No. 6 Freed-Hardeman. Brown's numbers are up across the board this season as a whole after she battled through a painful ankle injury for the entire 2008-09 campaign, one that limited her mobility as well as her ability to condition. She is averaging five more minutes per game this season so far (25.1) and has improved her shooting by 10 percentage points. Brown is averaging 10.8 points per game overall, second best on the club.

Landers out indefinitely

Freshman guard Kristi Landers started the first six games of the season but has been sidelined since December 2 with plantar fasciitis. She was scheduled to return in four weeks, which would have been in time for the conference slate, but the Briarcrest Christian HS product has added a walking boot to her wardrobe in the last two weeks and her return this season is up in the air. If she is able to play against in 2009-10, it would be in late February at the earliest.

Forwards hit the boards

First-year head coach Jeremy Lewis has settled on a three-player rotation at the forward positions over the last five games, starting junior Ashley Whitmore and freshman Stephanie Martin and bringing sophomore Simone Ryan off the bench. The trio averages a combined 18.7 rebounds per game, with Ryan leading the way with 7.4 boards per contest. The Byhalia, Miss., native has five double figure rebounding games this season, including 14 against Tennessee Wesleyan and 10 versus 13th-ranked Univ. of the Cumberlands. Whitmore has a pair of double-digit rebounding efforts, with 12 against Talladega College and 17 on Thursday versus Blue Mountain. The Antioch, Tenn., native is averaging 5.5 caroms per game as well as 5.8 points per outing. Martin has probably been the team's most pleasant surprise, grabbing 5.8 boards per game and adding 7.9 points per contest. She scored 11 points versus Tennessee Wesleyan and added 10 points against No. 6 Freed-Hardeman. She also averaged 7.6 rebounds over a five-game stretch from December 12-January 9.

Tidbits

Sophomore guard Brittany Cash has struggled from behind the arc over the last five contests, making just 4-of-17 (.235) 3-pointers during the stretch. Ironically, Cash has started the last five games, her only starts of the year ... Senior
