Bailey voted TranSouth Newcomer of the Year

Cumberland junior Allysia Bailey was voted TranSouth Conference Newcomer of the Year in a vote of league coaches released Wednesday. Bailey is averaging a team-best 11.9 points per game this season, including 18 double figure scoring games, 13 versus TranSouth opponents. The Knoxville, Tenn., native and Walters State Community College transfer posted a career-high 28 points at Mid-Continent on February 22 and 20 at No. 1 Union on Feb. 15. The Bearden High School product has led the Bulldogs in scoring eight times this season, including five of the last eight contests. She ranks second on the club in both assists (40) and steals (33) and is tops on the squad in 3-point field goal percentage (.396).

Martin named to TSAC All-Freshman Team

Cumberland's Stephanie Martin was named to the All-Freshman in a vote of league coaches released Wednesday. Martin has been a pleasant surprise for most of the year, averaging 7.2 points and 5.4 rebounds while starting 17 contests. Perhaps her best game of the season came February 18 against then 22nd-ranked Bethel Univ., when the Florence, Ala., native posted her first career double-double with 21 points and 10 rebounds. She has scored the double figures seven times this season and has led the Bulldogs in rebounding in 10 contests, including another 10 boards in Monday's victory over Mid-Continent.

Brown back in the game for CU

After missing six games because of a bad sprained ankle, junior Keshia Brown returned to the court last Saturday in a limited role, playing six minutes against Mid-Continent. She then played 17 minutes and scored nine points in Monday's TranSouth Championships first round victory over MCU. Brown is the club's second-leading scorer at 11.0 points per game. The Clarksville, Tenn., native scored in double figures in 11 of the 14 games December 12-February 11, averaging 13.6 points per contest during the stretch. But she turned her left ankle badly on Feb. 11 at Blue Mountain and missed the next six contests - versus Trevecca Nazarene, Union Univ., Bethel Univ., Martin Methodist, Mid-Continent and King College. Brown tied her career-high with 20 points at Blue Mountain, just the second 20-point game of her career after she netted 20 at Bethel Univ. on January 18. She is shooting 41 percent from the field and 76 percent at the foul line this season. Brown's only issue this season has been turnovers, where she ranks second on the club with 61, or 3.05 per game.

No. 1 Union has won eight straight over CU

Top-ranked and defending national champion Union University heads into Wednesday's contest with a current eight-game winning streak in the series with Cumberland after a 77-50 victory over the Bulldogs in Jackson on February 15. Union holds a decisive 46-2 all-time series record against Cumberland, with the Bulldogs winning just once in the last 18 meetings. Union's margin of victory since 2001 has been 24.9, while CU's lone victory came at home in 2007, a 79-66 triumph, with Kiana Robinson hitting six 3-pointers and netting 24 points, current graduate assistant C'Kala Humes posting 18 points and Renae Williams chipping in 11 points for the Bulldogs.

This year's meetings

Union won both contests this season against the Bulldogs, but in very different fashion. Cumberland fell behind by 16 points early in the game in January but trailed only 37-31 at halftime and scored 10 straight points early in the second period to take a 43-41 lead. The game was nip-and-tuck the rest of the way, with CU pushing its edge to 52-48 with 9:28 remaining after a driving layup from Brittany Cash. But Union answered with a 14-3 spurt over the next three minutes to take control of the game, and UU went on to the 69-63 victory. In the February meeting in Jackson, Cumberland shot just 33 percent in the second half and committed 21 turnovers in the contest, dropping a 77-50 decision. Allysia Bailey scored a then career-high 20 points in the loss. Union led 40-28 at halftime and started the second period with an 18-6 spurt that put the game away.

Gonzalez finds her range

Sophomore Tamara Gonzalez started the season on fire from 3-point range, making 53 percent (18-of-34) from behind the arc in seven nonconference games in November and December. The Asuncion, Paraguay, native scored 18 points against Bryan College and a career-high 28 points versus Tennessee Wesleyan during the stretch. But Gonzalez stuggled mightily from behind the arc once January began, hitting only 20 percent (11-for-56) over the next 16 games, including 10 contests without a 3-pointer made. She has found her range again over the last three outings, making 7-of-20 (35 percent) from 3-point range and averaging 12.7 points per game during the stretch.

Season of close calls for CU

Under first-year head coach Jeremy Lewis, Cumberland has posted a 9-17 overall record, but the mark could be much different if the Bulldogs had been able to finish and win close games. CU has dropped nine contests this season by seven points or less, including six TranSouth Conference outings. Six of the nine defeats have come against ranked opponents, and nine of CU's 12 conference losses have come by an average of 7.1 points. The Bulldogs have lost 12 times total this year by 10 points or less, a tribute to their effort and work ethic. What has been the difference in all of the tight games? Cumberland shoots just 40 percent from the floor and 30 percent from 3-point range, averaging just 58.7 points per game, which puts a premium on every possession. To that end, CU's 16.7 turnovers per contest has not helped either.

Bulldogs ink Seymour's Cowan

Cumberland has signed Seymour, Tenn., native Casie Cowan to scholarship papers for the 2010-11 academic year. Cowan has played four seasons for coach Andy Rines at Seymour High School, earning All-District 3-AA honors as a sophomore and junior and All-Region 2-AA accolades last season. She was named to the Knoxville News-Sentinel Prep XTra Preseason Second Team for this season after garnering Honorable Mention honors at the end of the 2008-09 campaign. Seymour was ranked seventh in east Tennessee in the preseason as well. Cowan averaged 11 points and three assists per game as a junior. The Lady Eagles won Region 2-AA last season and made the state sectionals. She is the daughter of Christy West and Rod Cowan and is also a 2008 Junior Rodeo Champion in Breakaway Roping.

Cumberland picked fifth in preseason

The Cumberland women's basketball program was picked seventh in a vote of league coaches released during the TranSouth Conference Media Day in Jackson, Tenn. Defending national champion Union University was the unanimous choice as the top team in the conference. Union received all seven first-place votes and 63 points in the Preseason Coaches Poll, while Freed-Hardeman, Trevecca Nazarene and Bethel Univ. were unanimous choices as the Nos. 2, 3 and 4 teams in the league, respectively. Lyon College (33), Martin Methodist (26), Cumberland (25), Blue Mountain (12) and Mid-Continent (9) rounded out the preseason poll. At least one TranSouth Conference team has reached the NAIA championship game in each of the last five years, with a conference member winning the national title in four of the five seasons. Cumberland reached the title game in 2007 before falling to Lambuth Univ.
