Ryan starting to play the part

Sophomore Simone Ryan showed flashes of brilliance last season, scoring in double figures eight times and averaging 8.6 points per contest in TranSouth Conference action. Ryan has never wavered in her ability to rebound the basketball, posting five double-figure outings last season and four more in 2009-10. But her scoring inconsistencies would drive you nuts, and they did this season as well, with the Byhalia, Miss., native netting double-digits just twice through the first 13 contests of the year. But she has found her scoring touch of late, posting 11 points in three of the last five outings, raising her season scoring average to 6.5 points per contest. Once again the H.W. Byers HS product is still hitting the boards, grabbing a team-best 7.4 caroms per game, fifth-best in the TranSouth, with four double figure efforts, including 12 apiece in each of the last two contests. Ryan has now led the Bulldogs in rebounding in 28 of her 48 career games at CU.

Bailey keeps producing

Junior Allysia Bailey has become Cumberland's best offensive weapon of late, and her consistent play has been a major help to the squad both offensively and defensively. Bailey has scored in double figures in 10 of the last 14 games and tied her career-high with 15 points in CU's 57-55 overtime victory over Lyon College on Thursday. The Knoxville, Tenn., native is the team's second-leading scorer with 10.4 points per game this season, including 10.8 points per outing in TranSouth Conference play. Bailey also ranks second on the club in steals with 25, including 11 in conference action.

Bulldogs finally win a close one

Cumberland was finally able to reverse its trend of losing close games with Thursday's 57-55 overtime victory over Lyon College. Tamara Gonzalez hit two free throws with 2.5 seconds remaining for the win. The triumph ended a five-game losing streak for the Bulldogs overall. Cumberland has lost six times this season by six points or less, including five games since December 30. Even with Thursday's victory, the Bulldogs have dropped eight of their last 10 outings, with the average margin just 6.6 points (a grand total of 53 points). Five of the eight losses have come against ranked foes, including the Univ. of the Cumberlands (67-65), Freed-Hardeman (59-53), Trevecca Nazarene (61-50), Bethel Univ. (70-65), and Union Univ. (69-63).

FHU holds big series advantage

Since the beginning of the 2004 season, Freed-Hardeman owns a 16-1 advantage in the overall series with Cumberland, including a 59-53 triumph in Lebanon earlier this season. The Lady Lions have eliminated the Bulldogs from the TranSouth Championships on three different occasions over the last six years, including last season's quarterfinal victory in Henderson, 68-54 (also 2005 and 2006). Cumberland has lost eight of the 16 meetings by nine points or less and its only victory was a 66-63 overtime triumph in 2007 in Lebanon.

This year's contest

Sixth-ranked Freed-Hardeman used a 19-0 run over six minutes spanning the end of the first half and the first five minutes of the second period and then staved off a late rally by Cumberland in a 59-53 FHU victory on January 9 in Lebanon. Cumberland started the game well and led for most of the first half, but 12 miscues in the first 20 minutes ultimately led to the Lady Lions holding a 30-21 advantage at the break after a 3-pointer from Tara Deatheridge at the buzzer. Freed-Hardeman then scored the first 13 points of the second half and increased its advantage to as many as 23 points midway through the period. But Cumberland used a full-court press and put together a 22-7 spurt over seven minutes, cutting the FHU lead to 56-48 with 3:36 left in the contest. The Lady Lions had two offensive rebounds before a Meribeth Boehler layup plus the foul with 2:37 left, ending the CU run and helping FHU hold on for the victory. Keshia Brown finished with 14 points off the bench for the Bulldogs, while Tamara Gonzalez scored 10 points. CU shot just 33 percent from the floor for the game. Jana Cross led all scorers with 16 points, and Deatheridge netted four 3-pointers and 14 total points. The Lady Lions made 18 of their final 35 shots from the field after starting the contest 6-for-18.

Defense, defense, defense

Cumberland currently leads the TranSouth Conference and ranks fifth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 53.44 points per game. The Bulldogs have allowed 60 points or less in 13 of the team's 18 contests this season, including four of the eight TranSouth outings. The Bulldogs are 7-6 in those 13 outings. No team has scored more than 70 points in any game this season, with Bethel Univ. defeating the Bulldogs, 70-65, and Union Univ. winning 69-63. Compare that with last year's club that allowed 70 points or more 16 times and gave up 100 on three separate occasions. CU ranks second in the TranSouth in field goal percentage defense at .361 and 3-point field goal percentage defense at .269, third in blocks per game with 3.72 and fourth in steals with 9.56.

Tidbits

Cumberland has tallied 10 or more steals in a game seven times this season, including 14 against Freed-Hardeman and Martin Methodist and 11 versus Tennessee Wesleyan. Cumberland currently ranks fourth in the TranSouth in thefts with 9.56 per game ... After making four or more 3-pointers in a game seven times in the first nine outings of the year, the Bulldogs have reached that benchmark just once over the last nine contests, making five against Union Univ.

Over those nine games, Cumberland is shooting just 24 percent (22-for-92) from behind the arc ... After making 13-of-27 from the floor (48 percent) and 6-for-16 from 3-point range (.375) over a five-game stretch from January 9-23, sophomore Brittany Cash endured one of her worst games of the year in the loss to King College on January 25, going 0-for-6, including 0-of-4 from behind the arc. Cash has just nine total points over the last three games ... Sophomore Tamara Gonzalez has struggled from the field since the start of conference play, hitting only 28 percent (22-for-79) from the field over the last nine games, including just 23 percent (9-of-39) from 3-point range. She has just two double figure outings in the nine contests and four games with six points or less ... Keshia Brown has scored in double figures in nine of the last 13 games this season, averaging 12.8 points per game during the stretch.

Bulldogs ink Seymour's Cowan

Cumberland has signed Seymour, Tenn., native Casie Cowan to scholarship papers for the 2010-11 academic year. Cowan has played four seasons for coach Andy Rines at Seymour High School, earning All-District 3-AA honors as a sophomore and junior and All-Region 2-AA accolades last season. She was named to the Knoxville News-Sentinel Prep XTra Preseason Second Team for this season after garnering Honorable Mention honors at the end of the 2008-09 campaign. Seymour was ranked seventh in east Tennessee in the preseason as well. Cowan averaged 11 points and three assists per game as a junior. The Lady Eagles won Region 2-AA last season and made the state sectionals. She is the daughter of Christy West and Rod Cowan and is also a 2008 Junior Rodeo Champion in Breakaway Roping.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Bulldogs on the Radio

■ All Bulldog basketball games may be heard on WANT FM 98.9 originating in Lebanon. Marv Dobson is in his second season as the play-by-play man for Bulldog basketball and is joined by Jon Boyce, in his first season as color commentator.

Interview Protocol

■ After a 10-minute cooling off period, requested players and head coach Lonnie Thompson will be available for members of the media. The Bulldog locker room is CLOSED both at home and on the road. At home, the interview area is located just off the southwest corner of the playing floor. On the road, requested players and Coach Thompson will be brought to an area designated by the home team. Player requests should be directed to Sports Information Director Jo Jo Freeman or Graduate Assistant Chris Brennaman.

Credentials

■ Arrangement for media credentials for the 2009-10 basketball season should be directed to the Sports Information Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Jo Jo Freeman. Priority issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations that cover Cumberland basketball on a regular basis. Other credential requests will be fulfilled on a space available basis.

Cumberland.edu/athletics

■ Cumberland basketball statistics and notes are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at cumberland.edu/athletics. Media are invited to use the official web site for Cumberland athletics for information regarding all Bulldog athletic teams.

Cumberland picked fifth in preseason

The Cumberland women's basketball program was picked seventh in a vote of league coaches released during the TranSouth Conference Media Day in Jackson, Tenn. Defending national champion Union University was the unanimous choice as the top team in the conference. Union received all seven first-place votes and 63 points in the Preseason Coaches Poll, while Freed-Hardeman, Trevecca Nazarene and Bethel Univ. were unanimous choices as the Nos. 2, 3 and 4 teams in the league, respectively. Lyon College (33), Martin Methodist (26), Cumberland (25), Blue Mountain (12) and Mid-Continent (9) rounded out the preseason poll. At least one TranSouth Conference team has reached the NAIA championship game in each of the last five years, with a conference member winning the national title in four of the five seasons. Cumberland reached the title game in 2007 before falling to Lambuth Univ.
