Brown ties career-high

Junior Keshia Brown tied her career-high with 20 points Thursday at Blue Mountain, just the second 20-point game of her career after she netted 20 at Bethel Univ. on January 18. The Clarksville, Tenn., native has scored in double figures in 11 of the last 15 games dating to December 2, averaging 13.6 points per contest during the stretch. In TranSouth action, the Clarksville HS product is posting 14.6 points per outing, eighth best in the league in conference play. She is shooting 43 percent from the field and 73 percent at the foul line in TranSouth action. Brown's only issue this season has been turnovers, a category in which she leads the Bulldogs with 64 overall, a little more than three per game.

Ryan adds another solid game

Since returning to the starting lineup five games ago, sophomore Simone Ryan has averaged 8.4 points and 7.8 rebounds, both numbers above her season averages. The Byhalia, Miss., native scored 11 points and grabbed 12 rebounds against both King College and Lyon College and added 10 points and seven boards at Blue Mountain on Thursday. During the five-game stretch Ryan is shooting 49 percent (20-for-41) from the field, well above her 38 percent for the year. She has led the Bulldogs in rebounding 13 times this season and 29 times in 50 career contests.

Where has the defense gone?

After ranking in the Top 5 nationally in scoring defense for most of the season, Cumberland has dropped to 12th in the country heading into Saturday's contest after allowing 89 points in each of the last two games. No team had scored more than 70 points against CU this season before Freed-Hardeman put up 89 last Saturday. Blue Mountain followed suit Thursday, making 13 3-pointers in the process, including nine in the first half. Cumberland still leads the TranSouth in scoring defense, allowing 57.00 per game, with Trevecca 20th nationally at 59.48 per game. The Bulldogs have allowed 60 points or less in 13 of the team's 20 contests this season, including four of the 10 TranSouth outings. Compare that with last year's club that allowed 70 points or more 16 times and gave up 100 on three separate occasions. CU ranks second in the TranSouth in field goal percentage defense at .373, third in blocks per game with 3.50 and fourth in 3-point field goal percentage defense at .283 and steals with 9.65.

Trevecca Nazarene has won 10 consecutive games against Cumberland in the series and 12 of the last 13 dating to the 2004 season. The Bulldogs shot just 28 percent (7-of-25) from the field in the first half and trailed 32-18 at halftime. But CU cut the deficit to nine late in the contest. Trevecca committed 11 second-half miscues, allowing the Bulldogs to get back in the game, as Tamara Gonzalez hit a pair of 3-pointers and Keshia Brown scored 12 of her 16 points after intermission. Allysia Bailey was the only other CU player in double digits with 11 points. The teams combined for 44 fouls and 47 free throws in the game, including 27 fouls and 30 foul shots in the second half. #### Tidbits

Cumberland has tallied 10 or more steals in a game eight times this season, including 14 against Freed-Hardeman and Martin Methodist and 11 versus Tennessee Wesleyan. Cumberland currently ranks fourth in the TranSouth in thefts with 9.65 per game ... After making four or more 3-pointers in a game seven times in the first nine outings of the year, the Bulldogs have reached that benchmark just once over the last 11 contests, making five against Union Univ. Over those 11 games, Cumberland is shooting just 21 percent (22-for-107) from behind the arc, including 0-for-15 in the last two games ... After scoring in double figures in eight of 10 contests from December 30-January 25, junior

Allays Bailey has netted just nine total points in the last two games ... Sophomore Tamara Gonzalez continues to struggle in conference play, making just 16 percent (6-for-37) from 3-point range in TranSouth action. She is the team's top 3-pointer shooter this season at 35 percent and has 30 made trifectas, also tops on the squad ... Junior Ashley Whitmore has been slowed by a foot injury, limiting her ability to practice as well as her minutes in games.

Bulldogs ink Seymour's Cowan

Cumberland has signed Seymour, Tenn., native Casie Cowan to scholarship papers for the 2010-11 academic year. Cowan has played four seasons for coach Andy Rines at Seymour High School, earning All-District 3-AA honors as a sophomore and junior and All-Region 2-AA accolades last season. She was named to the Knoxville News-Sentinel Prep XTra Preseason Second Team for this season after garnering Honorable Mention honors at the end of the 2008-09 campaign. Seymour was ranked seventh in east Tennessee in the preseason as well. Cowan averaged 11 points and three assists per game as a junior. The Lady Eagles won Region 2-AA last season and made the state sectionals. She is the daughter of Christy West and Rod Cowan and is also a 2008 Junior Rodeo Champion in Breakaway Roping.

Cumberland picked fifth in preseason

The Cumberland women's basketball program was picked seventh in a vote of league coaches released during the TranSouth Conference Media Day in Jackson, Tenn. Defending national champion Union University was the unanimous choice as the top team in the conference.
