NEW GRANT ADMINISTRATOR JOINS LEGAL AID SOCIETY

NASHVILLE, Tenn. July 2, 2009 – The Legal Aid Society, the state’s largest non-profit law firm, announced C. Phillip Many will join the organization as a grant administrator.

“Phillip brings a great deal of experience to the firm,” said Gary Housepian, Legal Aid Society executive director. “His work will be vital to our continued ability to provide much needed services to the low-income families of the region.”

Before joining the Legal Aid Society, Many served as an independent consultant working with East Academy, Inc. and the YWCA of Middle Tennessee. He was director of Tennessee’s Welfare-to-Work Project for Policy Studies, Inc. and vice president of finance and information technology for Family & Children’s Services, Inc. in Nashville.

He holds a master’s degree from Grambling State University and a bachelor’s from Louisiana Tech University. He is a member of the board of directors for East Academy, Inc. and past board member of Boys and Girls Clubs of Middle Tennessee and the Tennessee Commission on Children and Youth.

The Legal Aid Society gives free civil legal aid to people who have nowhere else to turn. It serves 48 counties from offices in Clarksville, Columbia, Cookeville, Gallatin, Murfreesboro, Nashville, Oak Ridge, and Tullahoma. The Legal Aid Society is funded in part by United Way.
